B. S. Barton in the possession of the Society, which was evidently kept by Frederick Pursh, the eminent botanist, during an excursion at the instance of Dr. Barton. Although his name does not occur in the journal, it is clearly proven to be his, by a comparison of observations recorded with remarks published by Mr. Pursh upon plants which he discovered.

Pending nominations No. 576, 579, 580, and new nomination No. 581 were read.

And the Society was adjourned.
